OPPORTUNITY PRESENTS ITSELF

It is absolutely amazing how the Lord blesses us with opportunities, over and again, to serve Him and honor Him with our lives. He will open doors of opportunity for us which we may often mistake for hindrances if we are not careful. With these opportunities come great and weighty responsibilities as well.

Paul prayed for, and requested prayer for, the opportunities the Lord would open up for him. Paul's desire with these opportunities was focused on bringing honor to the glorious name of our great God. Note how he begins his letter to the Thessalonian church. Finally, brothers, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you (2 Thessalonians 3:1). In another passage Paul was writing in regard to how the church is to conduct itself when observing the Lord's Supper. Right in the midst of his instruction he says, So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31). He implores us in whatever we do, do it all for the glory of God!

PBC has been presented some great opportunities, two of which I would like to emphasize here. In recent months we have seen two ministry staff positions open up. Ministers we all have loved and grown close to have moved into new and different seasons of life and ministry. With these two openings God has presented us with the opportunity to move into new and different days of God honoring ministry. "New" because we will be serving soon alongside new individual ministers. "Different" because we will be serving soon alongside different ministers. Let's look to these new ministry days with a strong drive to honor God and do it all for the glory of God.

It is with grateful hearts that our Worship Pastor Search Team has devoted themselves to their work, knowing the PBC family stands with them in prayer. Your prayers have been heard by our Lord and He has been guiding and helping throughout this journey. It is the desire of this team to have something to present to the PBC family in the near future. It has been amazing to watch how we can plot our plans and set our goals only to see God work details in ways we never even considered. That's a good indicator that He is the one in control and not we who are guiding our ship. He also receives the honor for the work accomplished.

The Youth Pastor Search Team will be assembled shortly and begin their work to find God's person to lead our youth ministry. Please commit this team to your prayers as you have the Worship Pastor Search Team. This team will be making contacts with several outlets to gather information regarding candidates for this position. They will pray together, set goals together, follow leads together, and work together. More than anything this team will be submissive to the will of our wonderful Lord. When their process is complete we will all, no doubt, see the hand of God guiding them throughout their journey together.

Oh, what glorious days lay ahead as we pursue God's great plan for PBC! They will speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty, and I will meditate on your wonderful works (Psalm 145:5).

Pastor Dwayne
